09/14/2011	79	ORDER denying 75 Defendants' Motion to Strike Portions of Plaintiffs' Supplemental Memorandum and Motion for Leave to File Reply. Defendants failed to comply with Local Rule 7.1(A)(3), which requires counsel to confer in good faith before filing any motions other than those specifically exempt. The parties should take very seriously their obligations under Local Rule 7.1(A)(3) to confer in good faith in an attempt to resolve issues prior to seeking judicial intervention. Moreover, Plaintiffs' memorandum did not improperly exceed the scope of an acceptable supplemental brief. Plaintiffs provided additional information in support of arguments they made in their prior motions and at the hearing before me. The only "new argument" Plaintiffs raised was a rebuttal of a new argument Defendants set forth in their own supplemental memorandum. Striking the Plaintiffs memorandum is not warranted. I also find these issues have been fully briefed and additional argument is unnecessary. Signed by Judge Marcia G. Cooke on 9/14/2011. (scy) (Entered: 09/14/2011)
